

ARMCHAIR INVESTOR TREND-FOLLOWING STRATEGY***

(*For that part of your portfolio which is invested in a market-tracking ETF like the QQQ.)

FRIDAY: The major indexes rose modestly Friday with much lighter volume on the half day of Black Friday trading.

- Both the Nasdaq and S&P500 hit new, all-time highs again on Friday.
- The Nasdaq and S&P500 rose almost 0.4% on about half their average volume.

Why is the market always open on the day after Thanksgiving where there is so little trading?

- If the market weren't open on Friday, we would have 4 non-market days in a row (Thanksgiving, Friday, Saturday and Sunday). What if something critical happened on Wednesday night? The market couldn't respond for four days. That long of black-out period is incredibly scary to the market.

MARKET IS IN UPTREND: The Nasdaq is UP 23% since the February low of this year (measured from the open (4397.95) on the action point 2/16 – the day after the new Uptrend was signaled with a Follow-Through day. I hope you got your piece of that action!

The Nasdaq distribution count now totals 7 distribution days.

Good news: Three distribution days will time out of the Nasdaq count next week.

The S&P500 distribution count is a less daunting 3 distribution days.

WHAT IS A “GROWTH RECESSION?”

Growth Recession was a term used in Investor's Business Daily's Friday Big Picture. Here is Investopedia.com's definition:

[A Growth Recession is] an expression coined by economists to describe an economy that is growing at such a slow pace that more jobs are being lost than are being added. The lack of job creation makes it "feel" as if the economy is in a recession, even though the economy is still advancing.

The Investopedia article continues:

Many economists believe that between 2002 and 2003, the United States' economy was in a growth recession. In fact, at several points over the past 25 years the U.S. economy is said to have experienced a growth recession. That is, in spite of gains in real GDP, job growth was either non-existent or was being destroyed at a faster rate than new jobs were being added.

The article has not been updated for the current "Growth Recession," but I'm sure you can see the relevance.

TODAY'S MARKET ACTION

11/25/16	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Current Trend: UPTREND Began 6/30/2016
Nasdaq	5398.92	+0.3%	-47.9%	-58.2%	Neither	+11.6%
S&P500	2213.35	+0.4%	NYSE Volume		Neither	+5.4%
NYSE	10,878.09	+0.4%	-54.2%	-58.30%	Neither	+3.6%
DJIA	19,152.14	+0.4%			Neither	+6.9%

An ACCUMULATION day points at heavy buying by institutional money managers - the mutual funds, pension funds, banks, etc.
 A DISTRIBUTION day points at heavy selling by institutional money managers.

See additional notes on accumulation and distribution at the end of the FULL newsletter

A Major ACCUMULATION Day: Price RISES 1.0% or more higher Volume than the day before

A Minor accumulation Day: Price RISES 0.2% but less than 1% and Volume is strong (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume)

A Major DISTRIBUTION Day: Price FALLS 1.0% or more and higher Volume than the day before.

A Minor distribution Day: Price FALLS 0.2% but less than 1% and Volume is strong (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume)

Distribution indicates institutions are selling their stock. The standard mathematical requirements for distribution days are shown above.

And there are additional types of distribution days that show substantial selling such as happened on Monday June 27, 2016, when the market fell 2.4%, closed near the bottom of the day's price range but had lighter volume. The volume was still a strong 31% above average. In total, the day was heavy selling and labeled distribution (6/27/2016 was the second day of the market's heavy selling response to England's vote to leave the European Union.)

CURRENT TREND: There are two trends (UPTREND and DOWNTREND). But because most tops are rounded and happen over a couple of weeks or more, we find it useful to modify the Uptrend into "Uptrend under PRESSURE" when the distribution count gets uncomfortably high.

HOW CLOSE ARE THE INDICES TO ALL-TIME HIGHS?

Below are the highs as of September 2016. I will use these highs until the market has risen above those by at least 5%. Only the Nasdaq and S&P500 are considered “market direction indicators.” Recently, the market has found the S&P500 8/15/2016 highs to be resistance (a barrier to rising higher).

	Nasdaq	S&P500	NYSE	DJIA
Date of Index High	All-time High (9/22/2016)	All-time High (8/15/2016)	All-time High (5/21/2015)	All-Time High (8/15/2016)
All-time High	5342.88	2193.81	11254.87	18668.44
Current Price	5398.92	2213.35	10878.09	19152.14
% Off All-Time High	+1.1%	+0.9%	-3.3%	+2.6%
$ off the All-Time High Price	+$56.04	+$19.54	-$376.78	+$483.70

Both indexes are significantly below their all-time highs. Both indexes tumbled down a steep slope, closing lower 9 days in a row, then recovered nicely over the last 2 days.

Those highs now appear to be the prices to beat. The “How Close are the Indexes to All-Time Highs?” table (prior page) has been updated to refer to these all-time highs including new highs this year for the Nasdaq, S&P500 and DJIA. The NYSE is still below its 2015 high.

The above charts are from StockCharts.com, a valuable site for investors with many free tools. On the daily charts: The price 50-day and 200-day moving averages are shown. If you don't see the 200-day price moving average, it is too low (or high) to show. But stay tuned – it will appear on these charts when the market direction changes. Also, the volume 50-day moving average is shown.

On the weekly charts: The price 10-week & 40-week moving averages and the 10-week volume moving average is shown.

MARKET DIRECTION ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

More detailed comments on market direction and technical analysis for individual stocks

FRIDAY: The Nasdaq and S&P500 are pushing into new high territory! The market seems to like the idea of a Trump stimulation of the economy. You may or may not like the man but I'm happy to make money as the market rises.

Many of the stocks below are past the 5% buy zone buy but could be bought with small purchases on Fridays with an "Inch by Inch" strategy:

WILLIAM O'NEIL'S INCH BY INCH STRATEGY:

For a stock that is rising consistently and has strong CAN SLIM ratings:

1) Watch the Friday weekly move:

If a Friday closes UP from the Friday before, buy a small portion (perhaps 20% of your intended position).

2) Repeat

If price does NOT close up from the Friday before, don't buy it. But watch it for the next Friday. Few stocks rise every Friday.

Note: All of the following stocks have strong fundamental and technical ratings. NO RECOMMENDATIONS HERE – BUT A GOOD LIST TO START YOUR RESEARCH:

Stocks at or very near all-time new highs recommended and followed by members of my weekly Armchair Investor classes:

HQY

GIMO

NVDA

VEEV (just under its IPO high)

SCHN (at 3-year high and rising fast!)

Add in Friday's lone "Leader Up in Volume" THO which is also at an all-time high

Plus Sector Leaders not mentioned below:

IPHI (0.1% below Wednesday's all-time high)

ESNT (within 1% of all-time high)

WAL (at all-time high close)

When I see the above list, I feel like it's hard NOT to find great stocks.

Some of the stocks noted in Tuesday's Big Picture that are taking off:

- MBFI (up 13 out of last 14 days),
- EVR (up 17 out of last 17 days),
- SNCR (up 14 out of last 16 days),
- KLAC (up 8 out of last 10 days),
- OSK (up 10 out of 12 days),

HINT: When a stock with strong CAN SLIM ratings breaks out of a well formed base with a gap up, it may be purchased the next day at any price (e.g. the 5% restriction does not apply – a gap up that keeps going is usually so strong, it will keep going for a while!!!)

SOME GREAT STOCKS ARE BOUNCING OFF THEIR 50-DAY MOVING AVERAGES WITH STRENGTH. If you missed my definition of a Golden Triangle stock, visit the Armchair Investor Newsletter Archive at www.ArmchairInvestor.com – look under the FREE NEWSLETTER tab for the Archive for Wednesday's newsletter.

NOTE: Whenever a stock takes off like gangbusters, watch it daily and track distribution days (down days with higher volume than the day before).

- If distribution days start to mount up in NVDA or any other fast riser, consider adding a close, trailing stop to protect you against a climax top failure.

Good luck!

Remember:

The market continues in the direction it's going until it doesn't.

MARKET DIAGNOSIS: "UPTREND"

What to do now: The market is in an UPTREND and showing renewed strength.

- I started buying individual stocks on a week ago. The Uptrend is clear.
- Because I have continued to build my watch list, I have an instant stock suggestion source.
- Watch this column nightly for updates

EXPLANATION OF TERMS FOR THE ### MARKET ACTION OVER THE LAST 20 DAYS

Four weeks of price and volume action reveal much about the direction of the market and the strength of that movement.

		Price		Volume
Healthy Uptrend Price-Volume Movement	Strong Action	Up	↑	↑	Up
	Weaker Action	Down	↓	↓	Down
Healthy Downtrend Price-Volume- Movement	Strong Action	Down	↓	↑	Up
	Weaker Action	Up	↑	↓	Down

The chart below identifies the market direction indicated by the Nasdaq's price and volume action for the last 20 days at two levels of significance.

ACCUMULATION/DISTRIBUTION COLUMN - TELLS YOU WHERE THE BIG MONEY IS GOING

The listing includes: the date, Nasdaq closing price and percent change of the Nasdaq price and volume.

- The next column identifies days that were Major Accumulation (serious UPTREND indicator) or Major Distribution (serious Downtrend indicator) using the 1% minimum rise or fall with higher volume.
- Minor accumulation and minor distribution days are also identified – days that moved 0.2% or more but less than 1%.

"CONSISTENT WITH" – THE MORE SUBTLE, BUT TELLING MOVES

The last column is a more subtle UPTREND /Downtrend indicator.

Think of a healthy Uptrend. It will have many days where the index rises with increased volume. But even in the most robust Uptrend,* not every day will be up. In any Uptrend, there will be some down days. If they have higher volume, then the day becomes a distribution day. But if the volume is lighter (as frequently happens in an Uptrend), then the down day is NOT a distribution day. In fact, a drop on lighter 4747.62 volume says they market is NOT selling off heavily – good news and consistent with the Uptrend.

Using the Healthy UPTREND/Downtrend price and volume movement listed above.

- For example, if the Nasdaq closing price rose 0.7% and the volume rose 2% (up and up), that movement is "consistent with" the price-volume action of a Healthy UPTREND.
- If the price drops 0.5% and the volume rises 1.2% (down and up), that movement is "consistent with" the price-volume action of a Healthy Downtrend as indicated in the table above.
- Any index change less than + or – 0.3% or volume change less than + or – 1% has no "consistent with" notation. Price and volume movements that small is not strong enough to tell us about the market movement.

A Major Accumulation Day: Price RISES 1.0% or more and higher Volume than the day before
A Minor accumulation Day: Price RISES 0.2% or more and Volume is strong (either higher volume or is well-above average volume)

A Major Distribution Day: Price FALLS 1.0% or more and higher Volume than the day before.
A Minor distribution Day: Price FALLS 0.2% or more, Volume is strong (either higher volume or is well-above average volume)

A Stalling minor distribution Day: Only in an up trending index or stock, price is FLAT or DOWN slightly compared to the day before, closing in the bottom half of the day's range and volume is heavier or about equal to the day before or strong compared to the past market. It's the price closing low in the day's range after an uptrend that is the key for this designation. Price close to flat and higher or consistent volume indicates the big money (institutions: mutual funds, banks, etc.) are gently selling, trying to sneak out so you won't notice.

** The "CURRENT TREND" column calculates how far each index has moved in the current trend assuming you purchased the index (which is not buyable) at the opening price on the day after the trend change signal.

- When this column is GREEN, the index has moved in the direction of the market trend.
- HOWEVER, when this column is RED, the index change has fallen into negative territory (which could be a rise during a Downtrend)

An ACCUMULATION day points at heavy buying by institutional money managers - the mutual funds, pension funds, banks, etc.
A DISTRIBUTION day points at heavy selling by institutional money managers.
