The market is in UPTREND

THE WEEK: When I first found the BD Accumulation/Distribution ratings over 16 years ago I was so excited to finally have a tool that told me which stocks were being heavily bought or sold by mutual funds, banks and private money managers. This rating is a key rating I use every day to be sure I am only buying stocks that are being bought by the "smart money."

I am VERY EXCITED to point out today that the percent of all stocks with "A" and "B" (stocks under heavy accumulation) rose from 7% to 11% in one week (a 57% increase!). That move is extraordinary! And it shows that money is flowing into the best stocks.

Another show of strength last week was the Leader Up/Down ratio which rose to 2.25 – the highest ratio since January 22 of this year.

And YOU REMEMBER HOW GREAT JANUARY WAS!

Only a few days each year have a Leader Up/Down ratio this high. I'm mostly interested only in how the best stocks are doing and right now they are showing strength!

FYI: The Leader Up/Down ratio in this newsletter every night) covers the last 10 day. It is a fraction defined by:

$$\frac{\text{\# of Leader Stocks that ROSE with heavy volume}}{\text{\# of Leader Stocks that FELL with heavy volume}}$$

The 2.25 ratio says that over twice as many leading stocks (with strong IBD ratings that are leading the pack in RS and heavy volume) rose last week than fell on high volume days. That's a bigger fishing hole!

You can find the stocks that made it to the “Leaders up in volume” and “Leaders down in volume” every day in the Investor’s Business Daily Big Picture column. Look in the MARKET PULSE box. Happy fishing!

LAST WEEK'S MARKET ACTION
5/18/18	Weekly Index % Change	Weekly Volume % Change	Volume Above/ Below 10-week Avg	Type of Week
Nasdaq	-0.7%	+3.7%	-3.0%	Minor distribution
S&P 500	-0.5%	S&P 500 Volume		Neither
NYSE	-0.3%	-4.6%	+3.0%	Neither
DJIA	-0.5%			Neither

The "TYPES OF WEEK" are:

ACCUMULATION WEEK PRICE RISES 0.2% or more and VOLUME RISES

DISTRIBUTION WEEK PRICE FALLS 0.2% or more and VOLUME RISES

Another type of DISTRIBUTION(*): WEEK PRICE FALLS 0.2% or more & VOLUME is 15% or more above average even without an increase in volume.

The NYSE volume is used for the S&P500 and NYSE Composite.

FRIDAY: The week ended on an options expiration day which usually generates extra volume. But the volume this Friday was below average.

ABMD could be a candidate for William O’Neil’s “inch by inch” stock purchases plan if it shows another strong rise as it has for the last 2 Fridays.

PRIOR NOTES STILL RELEVANT:

David Saito-Chung made an interesting observation Wednesday in Investor’s Business Daily’s Big Picture. He said 40 of the 197 Industrial Groups (in a wide variety of industries) were UP today 1.6% or more. I like that broad show of strength. IBD’s research has shown that it is hard (but not impossible) for an individual stock to make a big run without the co-incidence of the rise of its industry group and sector.

If you are a market direction trend trader, this wide support of the Uptrend should also encourage you. The broader the show of strength, the more likely the uptrend is to continue.

Read today’s note and warning about Cheniere Energy (LGN) in the FULL newsletter. Two Fridays ago, LGN made a bold breakout of a cup base and has gained 4.5%.

NASDAQ NEAR ALL-TIME HIGH: The Nasdaq is less than 2% below its all-time high on March 13 of this year. The laggard S&P500 has more work to do to top its prior high (a 5% rise required). Watch for market action around these prior highs. DOES THE MARKET HAVE THE OPTIMISM TO GO TO NEW HIGHS?

LOTS OF GREEN ON “MARKET FACTORS, COUNTS AND RATINGS”

TABLE: Yeah! See this table in the FULL newsletter (link at top of this newsletter).

The Nasdaq and S&P500 recently made their second “higher highs” and “higher lows.” This is how a stock or market climbs out of a dip!

Download the full Armchair Investor newsletter to see the RISING support lines I have drawn in the daily and weekly charts of the Nasdaq and S&P500. Impressive. Now we need continued buying to push the Accumulation/ Distribution ratings back up to the B or A level to show broadening buying.

And..... We still need Volume!

Markets usually take off vigorously at the beginning of a new Uptrend in price AND volume but this one has NOT, yet. Without volume there is an underlying weakness to the market.

Some individual stocks have caught the Uptrend fever. They have price AND volume. I am buying full positions (through pyramiding in), of top stocks with strong breakouts.

ARMCHAIR INVESTOR TREND-FOLLOWING ACTION: With the market diagnosis as “Uptrend”, you have one Trend-following action:

- Hold an Uptrend ETF such as the QQQ, QLD and TQQQ.

REMEMBER:

THE MARKET CONTINUES IN THE DIRECTION IT'S GOING UNTIL IT DOESN'T.

THE ARMCHAIR INVESTOR strategy is SIMPLE and FAST to execute:

- Be in the market when it is going up.
- Be out or (or short) the market when it is going down.
- Protect yourself with an 8% stop.

FOR INVESTORS IN INDIVIDUAL STOCKS

More detailed comments on market direction and technical analysis for individual stocks

FRIDAY Even though the percent of stocks with A and B accumulation/distribution ratings is up, it is still hard to find a good stock as it is breaking out of a strong base. In an IBD article on Friday "These 5 Top Stocks are Getting a Handle on Buy Points," Ed Carson analyzed some top stocks near buy points including Facebook (FB), Twitter (TWTR), and Akamai Technologies (AKAM) recently breaking out of bases and Alphabet (GOOGL) and Alibaba (BABA) close to breaking out. It's worth reading the full article on investors.com.

There are several stocks breaking out of good bases or in buy zones. Using Investors.com's MarketSmith is the fastest way I know to find these stocks. Each week, the MarketSmith team puts all their screens together (the IBD 50, Week in Review, Top Big Cap stock, plus dozens more) and create one list of top stocks – the MarketSmith250. This is the list the O'Neil portfolio managers are sent home with each weekend. Now you and I can get that same list to study.

From that list, are other automated lists in MarketSmith such as:

- "stocks breaking out today",
- "stocks near buy points", and
- "recent breakouts".

These lists are updated in real time during the week! I am always excited to see the stock breaking out today list! It is my first, go to list! If interested, you can take a low cost trial of MarketSmith and get live coaching on how to use it. After hours, their videos about how to use MS are excellent!

If you take a MarketSmith trial, please mention the Dallas and Fort Worth Meetup leader as your source. This helps us get occasional guest speakers from IBD!

This newsletter is NOT designed to recommend stocks to watch or buy. But occasionally I get in the mood to talk about a few stocks that are breaking out or near breakout points. Today I draw your attention to:

- Cheniere Energy (LNG) which operates the Sabine Pass LNG receiving terminal. Its ratings are acceptable considering that Oil

& Gas companies fluctuate between good years and bad years – it's just part of the business. IBD's EPS calculation would like to see steady growing earnings and has no way to account for the faster swings of this industry group. What you can do is look for recent return to profitability with more expected which fits LNG to a tee.

- LNG broke out on last Friday with a 6% pop in price and volume of 125% above average. Price held at that attractive level on.

Monday and Tuesday: It is not unexpected that LNG's volume declined with some profit taking after the big rise on Friday.

Wednesday: This was the 4th day in a row that LNG closed almost unchanged, after the recent breakout. THAT IS SUPPORT: Someone is buying all offered at about 62.50.

Thursday: LNG fell 0.7% but its daily volume was the lightest since the breakout last Friday. There may have been a little profit taken, but it was not a distribution day since the volume was lighter than yesterday.

Friday: LNG rose 0.4% and is just 7 cents below the close of last Friday's breakout day. That tells me the breakout is holding nicely about 4% above the base's pivot (buy) point with only modest profit taking as expected when a stock hits a new high.

Monday: LNG rose 0.5% on higher volume for a minor accumulation day! Price ended the day at a new high close.

Tuesday & Wednesday: LNG continues to hang around the end-of-day price from when it broke out last week. A good breakout is commonly stalled (as LNG is) when there is some profit taking. The drying up of LNG's selling is visible in the declining volume over the last two weeks. This week's below-average volume is a hint that the selling may be near an end. LNG inched up Monday and Wednesday to all-time closing highs.

Thursday: LNG took its FIRST minor distribution day today dropping 0.6% on higher volume (but below average volume). My concern is that LNG has now languished for 8 days after its powerful breakout on 5/4 (UP 5.9% with volume of 125% above average). If you caught LNG as it broke out, my question is:

“Is it time to take at least some of your profit off the table?”

If you bought LNG at the end of the breakout day, you have a small loss. You may look at the 2 weeks of no gains and decide to protect your holding with a stop at the lowest price since the 61.42 breakout

Friday: LNG dipped and recovered right back into its tight closing range. The higher volume and 1% gain for the day was a Major Accumulation day. Perhaps the “selling at a new high” is about over and the buyers that have been holding it up will finally get a chance to bid the price higher.

I AM STILL CAREFULLY BUYING INDIVIDUAL STOCKS which are breaking out of good bases with high volume on the breakout day. Volume is the factor which is hard to find right now but I can wait! With the current weakness in the market, I am buying smaller first bites. If you are having trouble finding enough good stocks to buy, consider adding the QQQ or another Uptrend-Index ETF. This is one place I put some of my money when I can't find the right stock at a buy point.

Remember:

CASH IS A POSITION.

The market diagnosis is UPTREND.

REMEMBER:

YOU ARE NOT SMARTER THAN THE MARKET

THE MARKET AND STOCKS CONTINUE IN THE DIRECTION THEY ARE GOING..... UNTIL THEY DON'T.

PROTECT YOUR PORTFOLIO WITH AN 8% STOP

CHOOSE YOUR STOP & LIVE BY IT – NO EXCUSES!

And you don't have to wait for your stock to fall to the stop. A concentration of distribution days is always a reason for me to get out wherever it happens!

What to do now:

1. WATCH YOUR INVESTMENTS CLOSELY: Add positions in top stocks at buy or add-on points. Sell stalling and falling stocks quickly.
2. Do a quick review of each stock you own every night. Look for strength and weakness signals in the price-volume action, especially watching for distribution (signs of institutional selling)
3. DON'T LOSE YOUR GAINS: Sell any stock that is showing a concentration of distribution days. I sell more quickly in a Downtrend

EXPLANATION OF TERMS FOR THE MARKET ACTION OVER THE LAST 20 DAYS
Four weeks of price and volume action reveal much about the direction of the market and the strength of that movement.
		Price		Volume
Healthy Uptrend Price-Volume Movement	Strong Action	Up	↑	↑	Up
	Weaker Action	Down	↓	↓	Down
Healthy Downtrend Price-Volume- Movement	Strong Action	Down	↓	↑	Up
	Weaker Action	Up	↑	↓	Down

The chart below identifies the market direction indicated by the Nasdaq's price and volume action for the last 20 days at two levels of significance.

ACCUMULATION/DISTRIBUTION COLUMN - TELLS YOU WHERE THE BIG MONEY IS GOING

The listing includes: the date, Nasdaq closing price and percent change of the Nasdaq price and volume.

- The next column identifies days that were Major Accumulation (serious UPTREND indicator) or Major Distribution (serious Downtrend indicator) using the 1% minimum rise or fall with higher volume.
- Minor accumulation and minor distribution days are also identified – days that moved 0.2% or more but less than 1%.

"CONSISTENT WITH" – THE SUBTLE, BUT TELLING MOVES

The last column is an UPTREND /Downtrend indicator.

Think of a healthy Uptrend. It will have many days where the index rises with increased volume.

But even in the most robust Uptrend, * not every day will be up. In any Uptrend, there will be some down days. If they have higher volume, then the day becomes a distribution day but if the volume is lighter (as frequently happens in an Uptrend), then the down day is

NOT a distribution day. In fact, a drop on lighter 4747.62 volume says they market is NOT selling off heavily – good news and consistent with the Uptrend.

Using the Healthy UPTREND/Downtrend price and volume movement listed above.

- For example, if the Nasdaq closing price rose 0.7% and the volume rose 2% (up and up), that movement is “consistent with” the price-volume action of a Healthy UPTREND.
- If the price drops 0.5% and the volume rises 1.2% (down and up), that movement is “consistent with” the price-volume action of a Healthy Downtrend as indicated in the table above.
- Any index change less than + or – 0.2% or volume change less than + or – 1% has no “consistent with” notation. Price and volume movements that small is not strong enough to tell us about the market movement.

EXAMPLE OF ACCUMULATION AND DISTRIBUTION WITH EXPANDED EXPLANATION OF TERMS:

Today's Market Action with explanation
2/5/16	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Current Trend: DOWNTREND Began 1/4/2015
Index	4363.14	-3.2%	+13.8%	+21.8%	Major Distribution	+11.3%
S&P500	1879.92	-1.9%	NYSE Volume		Neither	+6.6%
NYSE	9,390.33	-1.5%	-5.3%	+15.0%	Neither	+6.2%
DJIA	16,204.62	-1.3%			Neither	+5.5%

A Major Accumulation Day: Price RISES 1.0% or more and higher Volume than the day before
A Minor accumulation Day: Price RISES 0.2% or more and Volume is strong (either higher volume or is well-above average volume)

A Major Distribution Day: Price FALLS 1.0% or more and higher Volume than the day before.
A Minor distribution Day: Price FALLS 0.2% or more, Volume is strong (either higher volume or is well-above average volume)

A Stalling minor distribution Day: Only in an up-trending index or stock, price is FLAT or DOWN slightly compared to the day before, closing in the bottom half of the day's range and volume is heavier or about equal to the day before or strong compared to the past market. It's the price closing low in the day's range after an uptrend that is the key for this designation. Price close to flat and higher or consistent volume indicates the big money (institutions: mutual funds, banks, etc.) are gently selling, trying to sneak out so you won't notice.

 The “CURRENT TREND” column calculates how far each index has moved in the current trend assuming you purchased the index (which is not buyable) at the opening price on the day after the trend change signal.

- When this column is GREEN, the index has moved in the direction of the market trend.
- HOWEVER, when this column is RED, the index change has fallen into negative territory (which could be a rise during a Downtrend)

An ACCUMULATION day points at heavy buying by institutional money managers - the mutual funds, pension funds, banks, etc.
A DISTRIBUTION day points at heavy selling by institutional money managers.
