CURRENT MARKET DIRECTION: UPTREND

Armchair Investor Trend-following Investment Action:	I the QQQ
---	------------------

Market moved into Uptrend Tuesday. Following the Armchair Investor plan, I bought the QQQ at the open the following morning. Wednesday and Friday were distribution days (down days with higher volume). That weakness is NOT what I'd like to see after a return to Uptrend. We can blame a cooling down economy and political difficulties. But also, it is not uncommon for the major indices to pause near all-time highs.

DAILY MARKET ACTION
10/18/19	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg.	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Recent Trend Gain/Loss from 8/13 UPTREND SIGNAL
Nasdaq	8,089.54	-0.8%	+5.9%	+1.1%	Minor distribution	+3.5%
S&P500	2,986.20	-0.9%	NYSE Volume		Minor distribution	+4.2%
DJIA	26,770.20	-0.9%	+5.3%	-4.9%	Minor distribution	+3.6%

A minor distribution Day is when Price FALLS at least 0.2% and less than 1% with strong Volume (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume).

On Tuesday, the market moved into Uptrend with a Major Accumulation day.

>>>> I bought the QQQ at Wednesday's market open in my trend-following account as was the plan in Tuesday night's newsletter...

Current Signs of Market Strength:

- On Tuesday, the S&P500 and Nasdaq had three accumulation days out of four on Tuesday putting the market diagnosis in..... UPTREND!

Current Signs of Market Weakness:

- Wednesday and Friday for distribution days – NOT what you would like to see after a return to uptrend signal.
- Watch out for ADDITIONAL DISTRIBUTION DAYS with other signs of weakness to TURN THE UPTREND back under pressure!

MY PLAN FOR MONDAY: I will hold the QQQ and add 1 or 2 starter positions (50% of my intended holding) in one or two stocks from my watch list if they breakout with strong volume!

- > I WATCH for LEADING STOCKS breaking out to BUY today!
- > I WISH for another accumulation day with above-average volume.

Armchair Investor Mantra:

- Be in the market when it is going up
- Be out of the market when it is going down

Below are the year-to-date gains when following the signals in this newsletter are 14.9% which already outperforms most annual returns. Note that most of the gains so far this year, occurred in the first 4 and a half months of the year. It is not uncommon for the market to hesitate near all-time highs.

The question to answer is, “Which way will it break?”

- (1) Continue to new highs? Or
- (2) Begin a new Downtrend, perhaps the long drop expected many times over the last 5+ years.

What I do know is that the market will continue in the direction it is going, until it changes.

ARMCHAIR INVESTOR TREND-FOLLOWING RETURNS

Gains Locked on 10/2 in as Market Uptrend Faded

I Love Locking in GAINS – e.g. selling my market tracking ETF stocks for gains as I just did this week.

The primary purpose of the Armchair Investor newsletter is to let you, the reader, make money using the trend of the market.

By knowing the best (most reliable) market change signals, you, too, can:

- Get in the market near the bottom of a new bull market
- Exit the market near the top, and therefore,
- Capture more of the gains,
- Avoid more of the losses and, therefore,
- Earn higher returns than the “buy-and-hold” strategy recommended by many brokers and money managers!

Knowing when to get out of a market that has topped allows you to keep most of the gains. Do you really want to let your gains fade away as the market falls – sometimes for years?

Most downtrends (also called corrections) fall faster than the uptrend. I frequently wait out a mini-Downtrend in cash. But, I am not willing to sit in a sick, falling market and lose my hard earned gains. I will give you signals in this newsletter for the current market conditions:

- Uptrends (get in a market-tracking ETF such as the QQQ) and
- Wait safely in cash after taking an Uptrend profit
- Downtrends (usually waiting in cash unless the Downtrend is strong).

THE ARMCHAIR INVESTOR PLAN:

It's as easy as 1- 2- 3!

Current market direction: On Tuesday 10/15, the market rose to STEP 1: UPTREND.

In Step 2: Hold the QQQ and watch the market very carefully for further signs of distribution. In Step 2, the market has a 50-50 chance of rising into an Uptrend, or falling into a Downtrend!

STEP 1: In an Uptrend, hold the QQQ, a Nasdaq100 ETF.

Find the market direction diagnosis every night in this newsletter. At the Uptrend signal, buy the QQQ the next morning if you don't have that position, yet. The QQQ follows the ups and downs of the Nasdaq100, allowing you to grab the rises of this Uptrend. With some additional positive action, you may decide to switch to the double QQQ ETF (QLD) or triple QQQ (TQQQ). I do not recommend these moves for the first time investor.

Just in case protection: When you receive your confirmation of the purchase price, place an 8% STOP LOSS order to protect your portfolio from a sudden market reversal (executing this sale is rare – I almost always sell when the market goes into “under pressure” or Downtrend – see Step 2 below). Your broker can help you set up this order.

This upward ride is the most exciting part of trend-following – Ride the escalator up, up, up as the market rises. Exit when the market moves into Downtrend.

Although not every Uptrend signal generates a positive return, most do.

History shows you will earn the highest returns if you act fast to buy the QQQ when the market signals a clear Uptrend (as happened on Thursday 9/5) Enjoy your ETF investment as it increases with the rise of the market.

STEP 2: When the Uptrend slows down: “Uptrend under Pressure”

“Uptrend under Pressure” means:

- The market is showing enough distribution– down days on higher volume – for investors to be concerned and cautious. Be sure to check on your investments each night! Many investors do not buy new stock positions during this period due to higher failure rates.
- From “Uptrend under Pressure” the market diagnosis could:
 - Rise, showing strength, and return to a healthy Uptrend – STEP 1, or
 - Could have more distribution days and fall into a Downtrend

STEP 3: When the market diagnosis changes to Downtrend.
Selling your Uptrend ETF position (QQQ, QLD or TQQQ) will capture gains earned in Steps 1 & 2 above.

After exiting the Uptrend ETF, wait in cash until the next Uptrend signal. More recent Downtrends have been short term and not tradable.

If the Downtrend is strong, this box will identify a signal to invest in an inverse ETF which makes you profits as the market falls!

NOTE: Not every market direction signal ends with a positive return. But overall, the ETFs have outperformed the market when traded according to these guidelines. Plus the market direction signals will help you by indicating when it is most effective to consider adding individual stocks to your portfolio (with a strong uptrending market).

Example of the DAILY MARKET ACTION table with full explanation of terms and signals:

THE DAILY MARKET ACTION
9/27/19	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg.	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Recent Trend Gain/Loss from 8/13 UPTREND SIGNAL
Nasdaq	7,939.63	-1.1%	+8.5%	-11.0%	Major Distribution	+1.7%
S&P500	2,961.79	-0.5%	NYSE Volume		minor distribution	+3.4%
DJIA	26,820.25	-0.3%	+5.1%	-12.0%	minor distribution	+3.8%

A Major Accumulation Day: Price RISES 1.0% or more with higher Volume than the day before.
A minor accumulation Day: Price RISES 0.2% and less than 1% with strong Volume (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume).
A Major Distribution Day: Price FALLS 1.0% or more with higher Volume than the day before.
A minor distribution Day: Price FALLS 0.2% and less than 1% with strong Volume (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume).
If the day's price/volume action does not meet the accumulation or distribution definitions above, it is a neither day.

 The Recent Trend Gains/Losses column calculates how far each index has moved from the recent trend change assuming you purchased the index (in an Uptrend) or sold the index (in a Downtrend) at the opening price on the day after the signal. Although not every year outperforms the common "buy and hold" strategy, using these signals has significantly OUTPERFORMED the buy-and-hold strategy in total since 1/1/2000.

Why are my Final Volumes Sometimes Different than Yours? Why do the volume numbers on this table not always match other web sites? The 4:00 close of the market immediately shows an accurate final price. But the volume figures continue to trickle in for hours. At some time, the accumulation of volume numbers has to be cut off and different sites use different cut-offs. Also, some sources include the volume of stocks listed on one exchange but traded on another (e.g. Apple stock listed on Nasdaq but also traded on other exchanges.) And some sources do not. The most important rule is to consistently use only one source for volume.

DO YOU INVEST IN INDIVIDUAL STOCKS?—

Always consider taking some profit if significant distribution is showing up for your individual stocks. However, many individual stocks are rising with gusto! Look at all the lists in the Investor's Business Daily newspaper for stocks breaking out with high volume. They are there!

To get a deeper sense of the health of the market, look at the MARKET FACTORS, COUNTS & RATINGS table included each day in the FULL Armchair Investor newsletter. It looks at 7 key market direction factors and highlights the leaning of each:

- If the factor leans toward the Uptrend, that box will be green
- If the factor leans toward the Downtrend, that box will be orange or red
