CURRENT MARKET DIRECTION: UPTREND

Armchair Investor Trend-following Investment Action:	I hold the QQQ Are you Aggressive? Consider a position in the TQQQ (I did!)
---	---

Monday: After both major indexes hit all-time new highs for 8 weeks in a row, it is neither a surprise nor disappointment that they pocketed some of those gains with a mild sell-off on Monday. Trade worries again!

Go to page 5 to examine the MARKET ACTION OVER THE LAST 20 DAYS which includes hitting new highs on 11 (Amazing!) of the last 20 days!

- No sign of a market top yet. Remember: a Market top or bottom can only be seen in the rear view mirrors e.g. after it has happened.

>>>> Watch this daily market analysis to see market direction changes. <<<<<

The Armchair Investor Trend-following strategy is UP 22.3% this year- see pg 3. The ACI strategy is designed to: GRAB most of the market's gains and MISS most of the market's losses using signals that require minimum effort to execute (follow this newsletter!).

Current Signs of Market Strength: The Nasdaq hit new highs for each the last 9 weeks!

- 60% of all stocks have strong A or B Accumulation ratings.! - see pg 6.
- The leading Nasdaq had only 2 distribution days in the last 17 trading days - pg 5.

Current Signs of Market Weakness: Indexes had the worst daily drop in 7 weeks pg 5

DAILY MARKET ACTION
12/2/19	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg.	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Recent Trend Gain/Loss from 8/13 UPTREND SIGNAL
Nasdaq	8,567.99	-1.1%	+78.7%	-1.8%	Major Distribution	+8.9%
S&P500	3,113.87	-0.9%	NYSE Volume		Minor distribution	+8.1%
DJIA	27,783.04	-1.0%	+89.7%	-5.2%	Major Distribution	+7.1%

MY PLAN FOR TUESDAY:

- > Hold the QQQ (or, for a more aggressive move: Hold the TQQQ).
- > I am cautiously buying the best stocks and keeping my original stop orders as they rise. I own no more than 5 stocks, plus the trend-following QQQ or TQQQ.

THE ARMCHAIR INVESTOR TREND-FOLLOWING STRATEGY

A Simple and Powerful Tool to Increase Your Returns

Armchair Investor Mantra:

- Be IN the market when it is going up
- Be OUT of the market when it is going down
- Protect your portfolio with 8% stops.

The primary purpose of this Armchair Investor newsletter is to let you, the reader, earn bigger returns riding the trend of the market.

By following the best (most reliable) market change signals, you can:

- Get in the market near the bottom of a new bull market
- Exit the market near the top, and
 - Capture more of the gains,
 - Avoid more of the losses and, thus
 - Earn higher returns than the “buy-and-hold” strategy recommended by many brokers and money managers!

Why a “Buy-and-Hold” strategy doesn’t work well:

When the market has topped and starts to fall, do you really want to let your profits fade away as the market falls – sometimes for years? Of course not! Selling your uptrend position allows you to capture your gains and store them safely away in cash. What is the right time to exit? This newsletter will show you the market’s signal.

Most downtrends (also called corrections) fall faster than the uptrends rise.

I am not willing to sit in a sick, falling market and lose my hard earned gains! Cash is a safer position!

Here are the three signals I will give you in this newsletter for the three market conditions:

- Uptrends: When the market rises into an Uptrend, buy and hold the QQQ, a stock that rises with the general market.
- Uptrend showing Weakness: As a market Uptrend starts to fall, you will receive the signal to exit the QQQ and safely wait in cash.
- Downtrends: If the market continues down, you will receive a signal to buy the PSQ, a stock that rises while the market falls.

FINALLY – For individual stocks: Use these market signals to help you when buying individual stocks. You increase your likelihood of a successful stock purchase if you only buy stocks when the market is in an Uptrend. Lesson: Don’t fight the market trend!

YEAR-TO-DATE ARMCHAIR INVESTOR RETURNS

Strategy: The Armchair Investor strategy is simple:

- Be IN the market when it is going up.
- Be OUT of the market when it is going down.
- Protect your portfolio with an 8% stop.

I don't know how to get in at the exact lows or at the exact highs. I do get closer than most!

Below are the year-to-date gains when following the signals in this newsletter which already outperform most annual returns. Note that most of the gains so far this year, occurred in the first 4.5 months of the year. It is not uncommon for the market to hesitate near all-time highs.

The question to answer is "Which way will it break?" was last answered on September 10/14 – UP!

The Armchair Investor Trend-following Basic strategy uses the QQQ. If you had bought the QLD (double QQQ's) or TQQQ (triple QQQ's) you would have made a much prettier return! But you also have a higher risk when the market reverses!

ARMCHAIR INVESTOR TREND-FOLLOWING RETURNS USING SINGLE, DOUBLE AND TRIPLE ETFs
For the Current Uptrend:
12/2/19	Opening Price on 8/14/2019*	TODAY's Closing Price	ETF % Change Today	Gain or Loss Since 8/13/19 Uptrend Signal
QQQ (1x)	185.31	203.00	-1.0%	+9.5%
QLD (2x)	93.62	110.82	-2.2%	+18.4%
TQQQ (3x)	59.15	75.24	-3.2%	+27.2%

Note: The links to update "TODAY's Closing Prices" in this table were broken recently. The above Closing Prices are corrected. This table tracks the returns you would now have if you had followed the Armchair Investor plan and bought the ETFs listed above at the opening price on the morning after the new "Market in Uptrend" signal.

>>>>Below is the GOOD NEWS about the progress of the Accumulation/Distribution ratings over the last 4 weeks –The count of A's + B's has risen to a very strong 60% - 2/3 of all stocks are being acquired by the big money. Compare to the D and E stocks at 19% (1 in 5). >>>>We haven't had 60% A+B's since February of this year!

PROGRESS IN ACCUMULATION/DISTRIBUTION RATINGS
The market shows its growing recovery as money flows INTO the market, keeping the number of A and B rated stocks high at 60%
		A	B	C	D	E	As + Bs
4 weeks ago	11/1	9%	43%	23%	18%	7%	52%
3 weeks ago	11/8	13%	44%	20%	17%	7%	56%
2 weeks ago	11/15	12%	44%	21%	16%	7%	55%
1 week ago	11/22	10%	43%	23%	17%	7%	54%
Today	12/2	13%	47%	20%	14%	5%	60%
	# stocks in each rating:	851	3020	1313	938	356	6478

Stocks with an A or B rating are under accumulation (being bought.)
Stocks with a D or E rating are under distribution (being sold).

AN EVEN SPLIT: Since there are 5 ratings, each would equally get 20%. When the market shows heavy buying of top stocks, the A and B counts will rise and the D and E counts will fall. When the market is heavily selling stocks, the opposite happens,

THE SIGNAL: Notice I have noted the % of all stocks that have A or B ratings.

- When the A+B% rises, I know the market, as a whole, is being bought.
- Any total of A+B's over their "fair share" of 40% (2 ratings out of the 5 possible ratings) is good news. (continued next page...)

A BETTER SIGNAL A rising A plus B total is even better! Examine the last column to see the jump in A+B over the last 4 weeks! This means, if you are looking at the best stocks, there are lots of high performing stocks to consider.

>>>>Now, go find the strongest stocks, breaking out powerfully from well-formed bases!

HOW CAN YOU CAPTURE THOSE GREAT MARKET GAINS SHOWN ABOVE?
THE ARMCHAIR INVESTOR PLAN:
*It's as easy as 1- 2- 3!

Current market direction: STEP 1: UPTREND

STEP 1: In an Uptrend, hold the QQQ, a Nasdaq100 ETF.

Find the market direction diagnosis every night in this newsletter. At the Uptrend signal, buy the QQQ the next morning if you don't have that position, yet. The QQQ follows the ups and downs of the Nasdaq100, allowing you to grab the rises of this Uptrend. With some additional positive action, you may decide to switch to the double QQQ ETF (QLD) or triple QQQ (TQQQ). I do not recommend these moves for the first time investor.

Just in case protection: When you receive your confirmation of the purchase price, place an 8% STOP LOSS order to protect your portfolio from a sudden market reversal (executing this sale is rare – I almost always sell when the market goes into “under pressure” or Downtrend – see Step 2 below). Your broker can help you set up this order.

This upward ride is the most exciting part of trend-following – Ride the escalator up, up, up as the market rises. Exit when the market moves into Downtrend.

Although not every Uptrend signal generates a positive return, most do. History shows you will earn the highest returns if you act fast to buy the QQQ when the market signals a clear Uptrend (as happened on Thursday 9/5) Enjoy your ETF investment as it increases with the rise of the market.

STEP 2: When the Uptrend slows down: “Uptrend under Pressure”

“Uptrend under Pressure” means:

- The market is showing enough distribution– down days on higher volume – for investors to be concerned and cautious. Be sure to check on your investments each night! Many investors do not buy new stock positions during this period due to higher failure rates.
- From “Uptrend under Pressure” the market diagnosis could:
 - Rise, showing strength, and return to a healthy Uptrend – STEP 1, or
 - Could have more distribution days and fall into a Downtrend (correction)

STEP 3: When the market diagnosis changes to Downtrend.
Selling your Uptrend ETF position (QQQ, QLD or TQQQ) will capture gains earned in Steps 1 & 2 above.

After exiting the Uptrend ETF, wait in cash until the next Uptrend signal. More recent Downtrends have been short term and not tradable.

If the Downtrend is strong, this box will identify a signal to invest in an inverse ETF which makes you profits as the market falls!

NOTE: Not every market direction signal ends with a positive return. But overall, the ETFs have outperformed the market when traded according to these guidelines. Plus the market direction signals will help you by indicating when it is most effective to consider adding individual stocks to your portfolio (with a strong uptrending market).

Example of the DAILY MARKET ACTION table with explanation of terms and signals:

THE DAILY MARKET ACTION
9/27/19	Index Close	Index % Change	Volume % Change	Volume vs 50-day Avg.	Accumulation or Distribution Day?	Recent Trend Gain/Loss from 8/13 UPTREND SIGNAL
Nasdaq	7,939.63	-1.1%	+8.5%	-11.0%	Major Distribution	+1.7%
S&P500	2,961.79	-0.5%	NYSE Volume		minor distribution	+3.4%
DJIA	26,820.25	-0.3%	+5.1%	-12.0%	minor distribution	+3.8%

A Major Accumulation Day: Price RISES 1.0% or more with higher Volume than the day before.
A minor accumulation Day: Price RISES 0.2% and less than 1% with strong Volume (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume).
A Major Distribution Day: Price FALLS 1.0% or more with higher Volume than the day before.
A minor distribution Day: Price FALLS 0.2% and less than 1% with strong Volume (either higher than the day before or is well-above average volume).
If the day's price/volume action does not meet the accumulation or distribution definitions above, it is a neither day.

 The Recent Trend Gains/Losses column calculates how far each index has moved from the recent trend change assuming you purchased the index (in an Uptrend) or sold the index (in a Downtrend) at the opening price on the day after the signal. Although not every year outperforms the common "buy and hold" strategy, using these signals has significantly OUTPERFORMED the buy-and-hold strategy in total since 1/1/2000.

Why are my Final Volumes Sometimes Different than Yours? Why do the volume numbers on this table not always match other web sites? The 4:00 close of the market immediately shows an accurate final price. But the volume figures continue to trickle in for hours. At some time, the accumulation of volume numbers has to be cut off and different sites use different cut-offs. Also, some sources include the volume of stocks listed on one exchange but traded on another (e.g. Apple stock listed on Nasdaq but also traded on other exchanges.) And some sources do not. The most important rule is to consistently use only one source for volume.

DO YOU INVEST IN INDIVIDUAL STOCKS?—

Always consider taking some profit if significant distribution is showing up for your individual stocks. However, many individual stocks are rising with gusto! Look at all the lists in the Investor's Business Daily newspaper for stocks breaking out with high volume. They are there!

To get a deeper sense of the health of the market, look at the MARKET FACTORS, COUNTS & RATINGS table included each day in the FULL Armchair Investor newsletter. It looks at 7 key market direction factors and highlights the leaning of each:

- If the factor leans toward the Uptrend, that box will be green
- If the factor leans toward the Downtrend, that box will be orange or red
