Today's HEADLINE: China Sell-Off spreads to Wall Street

I don't usually send out intraday emails – unless the news is bad!

All the sites I watch are warning about the “China” Contagion- a sell-off in Chinese stocks that is spooking Wall Street,

Yes, I am concerned!

I hope you followed my reminder yesterday and updated all your stop orders (standing orders that say, “Sell my stock if it drops to $XXX or drop XX%

If you would like to know more about determining which stocks to sell and which to hold (there are usually some winners in a market correction), please join the Armchair Investor workshop tonight on selling stocks. Here's the information

- There are almost 30 sell rules in the How to Make Money books.

Let me simplify it for you! We will focus on the most needed rules.

When you register for this workshop at the Armchair Investor Meetup (link below), list the stocks you would like reviewed (up to 10). We will review the most requested and those most in need of selling.

We will review every stock requested (as time allows.)

Bring your stocks and questions.
